

PROCLAMATION

Beaufort County Liberty Week

WHEREAS, the Beaufort County Historical Society, the oldest historical society in Beaufort County, has celebrated the history of Beaufort County since 1939; and

WHEREAS, the Beaufort County Historical Society and South Carolina Historical Society have had a long and successful relationship in preserving the rich history of our County; and

WHEREAS, the South Carolina Historical Society has decreed June 28 through July 4 as Liberty Week; and

WHEREAS, the Beaufort County Historical Society and the partners listed below, are responsible for the collection and dissemination of accurate historical data, with particular emphasis on those of Beaufort County; and

WHEREAS, the Beaufort County Historical Society and the partners listed below, have agreed to celebrate Liberty Week and share the costs using grant funds from the South Carolina Humanities via the South Carolina Historical Society; and

WHEREAS, the partners listed below have agreed to open their doors and offer free admission during Liberty Week.

Hilton Head Island:
Coastal Discovery Museum
Heritage Library Foundation / Fort Mitchel and Zion Chapel of Ease
Daufuskie Island:
Daufuskie Island Historic Foundation / Billie Burns Museum
Parris Island:
Parris Island Historical and Museum Society / Parris Island Museum
Town of Ridgeland:
Morris Center for Lowcountry Heritage Center
Town of Bluffton:
Bluffton Historic Foundation / Heyward House
St. Helena Island:
Friends of Fort Fremont / Fort Fremont
Port Royal Sound Foundation / Maritime Center
Town of Port Royal:
Historic Port Royal Foundation / Union Church
City of Beaufort:
Historic Beaufort Foundation / Verdier House
Beaufort History Museum
Santa Elena Foundation / Santa Elena History Center
Sons of the Revolution

WHEREAS, the Beaufort County Historical Society thanks all of the participants for generously giving of their time and energy to support the history of Beaufort County, not just during Liberty Days, but every day of the year.

NOW, THEREFORE, Beaufort County Council proclaims June 28 through July 4 as Beaufort County Liberty Week.

Dated this 26th day of June, 2017.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, which appears to read "D. Paul Sommerville". The signature is fluid and cursive.

D. Paul Sommerville, Chairman