IN APPRECIATION OF LIEUTENANT COLONEL FRED KUHN APPOINTED MEMBER OF BEAUFORT COUNTY BICENTENNIAL COMMISSION DURING OUR NATION'S CELEBRATION OF ITS 200TH BIRTHDAY.

WHEREAS, County Council of Beaufort County in commemoration of our Nation's Birthday appointed Lieutenant Colonel Fred Kuhn as a member of the Beaufort County Bicentennial Commission; and

WHEREAS, members of the Bicentennial Commission worked diligently and successfully to obtain recognition for Beaufort County as a National Bicentennial Community; and

WHEREAS, with minimal staff support, he and the other members of the Bicentennial Commission have successfully carried out the numerous community projects during the last calendar year at minimal cost to the County taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, the Bicentennial Commission has made the Bicentennial Year a meaningful and memorable experience for all the residents of this County, and has successfully brought to mind the rich heritage enjoyed by all County residents.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, this 14th day of February, 1977, County Council of Beaufort County expresses its deep appreciation for the efforts of the citizen volunteer workers on the Bicentennial Commission.
